

NCP SO/CWA NATIONAL TRAINING
and LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
San Diego, California
Holiday Inn on the Bay
1355 North Harbor Drive

August 27-28, 2010

NCP SO/CWA is committed to training public safety labor leaders on current professional issues. At our 8th annual National Training and Leadership Conference, the program will focus on three current issues that are always in the forefront of the public safety labor movements: labor law and politics, pension crisis, and offensive bargaining. Nationally recognized speakers will provide updates and vital information on each of these topics.

THE PROGRAM

Thursday, August 26 - 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Welcome Reception

Friday, August 27 – 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Mark Makler is a principal shareholder in the law firm of Garrettson, Gallagher, Fenrich, & Makler, P.C. (www.ggfm.com) which he joined in 1996. GGFM specializes in representation of Oregon and Washington public safety organizations, including law enforcement, firefighters, corrections, emergency communications, and public safety support.

Regina Markey is an attorney with the union-side labor firm of Beins Axelrod, P.C. in Washington, D.C. Regina has spent many years advising labor organizations and financial institutions on pension fund issues from a worker's perspective, both as a consultant and employee of the AFL-CIO and its affiliated organizations.

David Rosenfeld a partner at Weinberg, Roger & Rosenfeld in Alameda, CA has been practicing law on behalf of labor unions since his graduation from the University of California, Berkeley, Boalt Hall School of Law in 1973. His book entitled "Offensive Bargaining" and the strategies he has developed have been used by unions throughout the country as effective weapons against anti-union employers.

Saturday, August 28 – 8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
